QUESTIONS JURISDICTION

Judge Southall Rules Against Decisions of Magistrate Cownu. By a ruling of Judge Robert G. Southall, made yesterday in the course Company will appear in Police Court, of a trial in the Chesterfield Circuit Court, in session at Chesterfield Courtcause why Justice H. A. Maurice house, a question as to the validity of should not levy a fine upon them for recent decisions in the Swansboro magisterial court was raised. Four summens for the companies was served misdemeanor charges, up on appeal, yesterday on the local officers. The complainant is Captain A. S. Wright, of the Third District.

The complaint against the defendants is the result of the collision has Priday morning between an automobile truck and a Hull Street car. The truck, it is said, under the traffic ordinance, had the right of way, as it was running cast, while the car was coming from the north. The car was, according to the police, running at an excessive rate of speed.

Sets Civil Docket.

Dates for hearing the civil docket of Hustings Court, Part II., were set by Judge Urnest H. Wells yesterday as follows:

With Justice Maurice.

Justice II. A. Maurice yesterday disposed of a short docket. The most important case was that of Morris Thompson, colored, charged with entering a louise occupied by a white family. The negro was set upon and given a severe beating by the occupant, who thought he had found a burglar. The man, badly bruised and cut, convinced the court that he had been drinking and had mistaken the house for his home, which was nearby. He was dismissed.

A. M. Kirkland, charged with aturday

Luther Roach, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for ten days. His celebration consisted of breaking down a door at his brother's home and taking possession of the premises,
John Scott, colored, charged with stealing two pairs of shoes from a Southern freight car, was placed under six months' security.

Pootpads Terrorize Syransboro.

That Swansboro is the stamping ground for a band of footpads is the assertion of a number of citizens who have appealed to the county authorities for help. A large number of robberies have been committed within the past few days. With County Officer George Jarrell confined to his home by injuries, the task of breaking up the gang has fallen into the hands of citizens, and several have been made deputies. Not only have the footpads "stuck up" private citizens, but two of the special police having been victims since joining the force. Officer A. T. Traylor, of Oak Grove, has been assigned to the terrorized district. Footpads Terrorize Swansboro.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER.

Arrest of Young Man Who Proposed to Rob Students. Arrest of Young Man Who Proposed to Rob Students.

Lyfachburg, Ya. February 17.—Sergeant David Smith and an officer last night about 10 o'clock arrested a young white man giving his name as Harry Atwood, who first said he lived in North Carolina and a few minutes later gave Oklahoma as his abiding place. He was arrested as a suspicious character under the following circumstances as narrated by the police:

A student of the Christian College was in a restaurant on Main Street when Atwood went up to him, exclaiming. "Hello, High Point." As that town is the student's home he took some notice of the stranger who asked him if any, of the boys at the college had money. Upon being told that two were so fortunate Atwood proposed that they should mask and go and rob them, but as the student did not seem anxious to become a party to any such proceedings. Atwood pulled out a bunch of keys of various makes and sizes, saying: "These will fit any door; let's make a round to-night." The student the left the restaurant and informed the police, who arrested the man with the keys and the desire to rob.
